To whom it may concern,

I had the pleasure of working with Edward Fellows for a number of years during my career in the hospitality industry at T.G.I. Friday's, Covent Garden.

Edward is an extremely hard working, keen and quick to learn individual with an appetite for knowledge. Edward would understand the standard of work required, maintain this and help others to strive for this standard. He is honest, trustworthy and has the ability to talk to management at any level.

Edward had responsibilities for rota writing, stock control, cash handling, induction and training of new employees and also assisted with menu development.

I would not hesitate in employing and working with Edward again and cannot recommend him enough to a future employer.

If you have any further questions or queries please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely yours,

Adrian Laws
Bar Manager
