

career objectives

I now feel better prepared to further my career in graphic design, as I believe my past experience has given me a comprehensive understanding of all aspects of creative digital & print graphics and how to tackle its many challenges, plus I recently had the opportunity to invest in my career, completing an advance creative Design Web Course and I now feel I have the technical ability to feed my creative ability.

experiences

Wildfire Creative Graphics: Websyche Web design:	For the last 6 months I have been working as a freelance graphic & Web designer, working alongside design agencies & local companies on a mix of digital / web and print projects.
Maxwell's Marketing- Assistant Designer (18 months)	I worked for the Maxwell's Group in their in-house Marketing agency building brand presence and improving relationships through creative designs. This experience gave me a comprehensive understanding of all aspects of digital & print graphics.
The Roadhouse - Department Manager (4 years)	As a manager I was responsible for three very busy departments, and ensured our guests had a memorable experience. I also worked with the Marketing team on the implementation for promotional events.
Whitbread Head Office (Events) (1 year)	I was fortunate to be given the opportunity by Whitbread Plc to run and judge their T.G.I.'s 'Best bar' competition. This involved me travelling the uk organising events, promoting and marketing the T.G.I.'s brand.
